

Do you feel like a flowing "river" of your life?

Our editorial board feels it every day, because "river" of our life has two sides and runs right through the Seversky Donets river on which today trying to set boundaries in Ukraine and reshape its history and fate of our small homeland. A bank of our "river of life" is in a combat zone for our Ukrainian Donbas leak and the creation of the magazine, education of patriotism, which allows us to say that physically, every cell of our soul, we feel that there are Ukrainian, love their homeland and want to live in a peaceful, independent and free Ukraine! And the other side - there for us, "a guide" in today's our lives, for we are now trying to lead those who do not understand that our strength in unity, the strength of our spirit in one common cause that we all now make adjustment for peace of mind, a sense of security, value and importance of our state - Ukraine, its citizens - our readers and scholars - our authors! We try through global scientific matrix based on actions involving our magazine spread is reasonable, good and eternal, which is our state, our intellectual wealth - achieving those proving known truth that everyone should conscientiously perform their job and live the principles of "Fight and you will overcome!".

It was to be their field guides we wish our readers and authors, no drift of his life, and try to overcome those thresholds, change channels, adjust crossings and bridges connecting the banks of various walks of life, to experience all life whirlpools fate, to be able to overcome and win vital element of the waves and always be on its crest.

Editor in Chief Scientific Production Journal

"Journal of Economic Reforms"

T. Calinescu